

PN20 Before You Say Yes

Pre-requisite:

- This course is a pre-requisite for couples wanting to get married in Trinity Christian Centre
- Couples intending to marry must complete this course at least a year in advance

Are you ready for the wedding, but unprepared for the marriage – the permanent union of your lives? A wedding is for a day, but a marriage is for a lifetime.

Through this course, you will understand God's divine design for marriage. Discover each other's expectations and roles while prayerfully evaluating your relationship in view of your personalities and family backgrounds. You will be guided on how to resolve marital issues like money management, relationships with your in-laws, family planning and much more.

Textbook:

Every participant MUST purchase the course textbook Before You Say I Do – a Marriage Preparation Manual for Couples by Norman Wright from any Christian bookstore. Due to the nature of the course, couples should not share the book.

Fees:

*If at least one party is a registered member of Trinity: Fees are waived
If both are non-registered members as at registration date: $150 (per couple)
Couples are required to participate in an assessment tool called PREPARE, which costs $30 per couple. More information will be given during the class.*

Registration: Register at www.trinity.net

- For non-registered member of Trinity, please register for the course online and make payment on the first lesson
- Registration closes one week before the first lesson
- No walk-in is allowed

Even though my partner and I dated for seven years, we learned to communicate, understand one another and handle our expectations better after attending Before You Say Yes.
