I am currently serving an eight-year prison sentence. My whole world came crashing down when I was sentenced in 2004. My wife decided to end our marriage. My eldest daughter went into depression, which caused her to fail three out of four subjects in primary school. I could not sleep and my heart was in turmoil. I was even flirting with the thought of suicide. The gods that I worshipped seemed to have abandoned me. All this changed when another inmate passed me a magazine called Trinitarian.

As I read the magazine, I came across an article where Pastor Dominic recounted how his daughter was failing in her studies and how the situation turned around. That simple statement got my attention. Thereafter, I spent morning after morning, night after night studying the Bible.

Today, I have given my life to the Lord, and God has been good. My daughter is now the top student in her school and my wife did not leave me in the end. To top things off, I was even given a two-hour open visit with my wife and children.

Thank you for your article, which started me on my journey with God.

I know that He who began a good work in me will carry it to completion.

My wife and I read the Turbulent Times issue from cover to cover, all the way till 2am in the morning! We felt very encouraged by the testimonies, which spurred us on to believe God and trust Him despite the bleak market outlook. It boosted our confidence and, as we exercised our faith, we saw God demonstrating His faithfulness and providing for our family!

I would like to congratulate the people in charge of the Trinitarian magazine on a job well done! The layout and writing are totally professional, and the articles are always God-inspired and God-centered. I have been blessed and learnt from the experiences of Trinitarians. I was especially blessed by the article 'Financial Wisdom for Troubled Times' by Pastor Jeffrey Wong. The article made me realise the biblical grounding for tithing and it jolted me into action! I want to apply the four steps so that I will prosper, God's way.

I read each copy of the magazine not just once, but a few times. I find the testimonies very engaging and the articles help me in my daily walk with God.

I was especially encouraged by the article on how Pastor Dominic was mentored when he was a young believer – The power of mentorship! 'See a Potential, Develop the Potential' indeed! The magazine is very nicely done and highly informative, and I appreciate that I am able to read past sermons at leisure.

I look forward to reading and receiving each issue! There was once I brought the Trinitarian to school. Out of curiosity, my friend borrowed it to see what was inside. It became a conversation starter and I took the opportunity to share with her about God.
